The Honors Program understands that as a function of school resources, community opportunities, family circumstances, and personal issues, not all students have the same opportunities for academic enrichment, engagement with extracurricular activities, or service. If you believe that there is something about your personal situation that has limited your ability to achieve in the areas targeted in this application, please use the space below to explain to our review committee what challenges you have had to overcome to achieve and how this has impacted your preparation for success at the University level. You may insert additional pages if necessary.

II. Written Personal Statement

Choose a creative work in literature, art, music, or science that has influenced your life and describe that influence. Your response will be an important component in the evaluation process and will be reviewed for content, organization, grammar and how well it demonstrates your ability to think critically and communicate original ideas. Your personal statement must be your original work. Submit your personal statement in the following text box.

III. Creative Piece

Prepare a creative piece that describes who you are, what distinguishes you from other candidates, and what you would bring to the CMU Honors community. Documents should be limited to one page and any videos or audio tracks should be no longer than two minutes in length and include a link. Be sure that any image or audio is clear and that any text on the page can be read easily.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the submission of a creative piece. The box occupies most of the page below the instructions.
